

NORTHEAST OHIO WATERSHED RESTORATION TOURS 2010

One hour tours of natural and innovative projects designed to address flooding, erosion and water quality problems in Northeast Ohio

Free and open to the public.

Tours will be held rain or shine: please dress for inclement weather.

Unless otherwise noted, all tours begin at 6:30 PM.

Thursday, April 15

CSU Rooftop Garden

Recreation Center, 2420 Chester Avenue. Park on street or in east garage. Space is limited; please RSVP to info@NEOWatershed.org.

Monday, April 19

West Creek Restoration

Parking on W. Resource Drive, off Lancaster Drive - one mile east of Rt. 176 off Granger Road, Brooklyn Heights 44131
Please note: This tour begins at 5:30 PM

Thursday, May 6

Innovative Stormwater Management System using Pervious Pavers, Swales, and a Rain Garden

Cawrse and Associates
549 East Washington Street, Chagrin Falls 44022
Parking limited; Please RSVP number of attendees per vehicle to:
info@NEOWatershed.org

Wednesday, May 12

Big Creek – Chevy Branch Restoration

Walgreens parking lot at W. 130th and Bellaire Avenue (4281 W 130th St), Cleveland 44135

Monday, May 17

Euclid Creek / Wildwood Bioswale

Marina parking lot – Wildwood Lakefront State Park , 16975 Wildwood Dr. off Lakeshore Blvd., Cleveland 44119

Monday, May 24

Tinkers Creek – Bear Creek Branch Restoration

Parking directions TBD

June (date to be determined)

Permeable Concrete System

Cleveland Central Catholic High School Morgana Athletic Complex
East 67th and Baxter Road, Cleveland 44105

Sponsored by

NORTHEAST OHIO WATERSHED COUNCIL

The Northeast Ohio Watershed Council is a forum of citizen-based watershed groups, providing networking and mentoring opportunities and a collaborative forum for education, discussion, assessment, and adoption of advocacy positions regarding water quality, quantity, restoration, preservation, and distribution issues.

This tour series was made possible with the support of the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District.

For more information contact Bob Gardin, Vice-chair, at 216-269-6472 or visit www.NEOWatersheds.org